

Managing vehicle rental is none of your business...

Well it's not your core business even though sometimes it may feel that way. The supply and the management of vehicle rental is our core business. We are very good at it. That's why some of the country's largest users and providers of vehicle rental use our services.

Nexus can help your business manage vehicle rental to keep your people on the move – and your costs under control. Then you and your colleagues can concentrate on what you're good at.

Our mileage versus rental calculator tells you when it makes sense for employees to rent rather than drive their own vehicles.

IRIS, our market leading application puts you in complete control of every aspect of rental.

Apply new thinking to your vehicle usage.
